

Japanese Knotweed

Shoot growth. Key characteristics: red-colored shoots emerge from rhizomes and leaves have distinct red veins. Leaves are large and egg-shaped.

Flowers are white and occur in clusters in the leaf axils.

Life cycle: perennial.