

Jerusalem Artichoke

Seedling plants.

Vegetative plant. Key characteristics: stems are hairy; leaves on the lower portion of the plant are opposite while upper leaves are alternate. Petioles are winged.

Flower.

Tuber. The plant is a rhizomatous perennial and produces underground reddish-brown tubers.

Life cycle: perennial.