

Pineappleweed

Vegetative plant. Key characteristics: rosettes are formed from a central axis while in the vegetative state. Leaves are highly dissected, hairless and succulent. When cut, the plant has a sweet fragrance.

Flower. Flowers are cone-like, greenish-yellow and borne on short stems.

Life cycle: summer or winter annual.