

Quackgrass

Collar region. Key characteristics: auricles clasp around the stem; the presence of hair varies on the upper leaf blade and stem. Lower leaf blade surface is smooth.

Inflorescence. Key characteristics: long spikes with the seed arranged in two rows.

Seed. Seed have a single awn and are approximately 8.0 mm long.

Life cycle: cool season perennial.