

Rosinweed

Flowering plants and foliage. Key characteristics: leaves are opposite on this erect-growing plant and form "cups" where they join the stems.

Flower.

Seed. Seed are distinctly flattened and have a length of approximately 10 mm.

Life cycle: perennial.