

Yellow Foxtail

Vegetative plant. Key characteristics: long, shaggy hair at base of leaf blades, ligule a ring of hair (similar to giant and green foxtails), sheath is compressed and often reddish at base.

Inflorescence. Key characteristics: 5 or more awns per spikelet, yellow in color at maturity.

Seed. Seed are ovate and approximately 2.5 mm long.

Life cycle: summer annual.